NUMB. 449

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From MONDAY Auguſt 23, to MONDAY Auguſt 30, 1742.

Mr. Timothy,

CONSIDERING how WHITEFIELDISM has raged and rioted in ſome other Colonies to the Northward, particularly in Pennſylvania, the Jerſeys, and the ſeveral Colonies of New-England; what ſore Evils and Miſchiefs it has produced in them! What Diviſions, Strifes, Hatred, and Animoſities in Neighbourhoods and private Families! What tumultuous Aſſemblies, Diſorders, and Confuſions in Places of Divine Worſhip! What Mobbing, Diſquiet, and Diſturbance to Civil Government! What Freaks, Frenzies, Convulſions, Madneſſes and ſelf-Murders, &c! - Conſidering, I ſay, Theſe and other like Evils and Miſeries the RANT has produced, and ſtill continues to produce in other Colonies, we have great Reaſon to thank God, that it has ſo favourably ſubſided in this; and that the zealot Diſciples of that now plainly deſigning NOVICE, are ſo reduced here, as if there were none remaining. But if any ſuch ſtill remain, it will be an Act of Charity in you, for their Sakes, to inſert, in your next Gazette the following Extract. And if they have but Faith enough to believe it, then let Them ſay; ---- What they now think of their apoſtolick Man! Whether they can ſtill think ſuch a Man, who, th'other Day, preached up the moſt rigid Doctrines of Calviniſm, with ſuch Vehemence, and inſulting Arrogance, as thus to IMPRECATE; ----- If theſe are not the true Doctrines of the Goſpel, then may all that ever heard me, -- All that now hear me, -- And all that ever ſhall hear me, riſe up in Judgment againſt me, and rejoice in my Damnation, at the great Day! Who would ſneer in the Face of any One, who but doubted of theſe Doctrines, and peremptorily denounce, -- You are damned! And who could cruelly aſſign over innumerable Infants (who had neither done Good nor Evil) to everlaſting Burnings! --- Whether they can ſtill think ſuch a Man, now turned Herrnhuht-Moravian, and preaching up quite contrary Doctrines, to be a Man of God! A Man, full of Faith and of the Holy Ghoſt! A true and faithful Miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt! And not rather a firebrand Enthuſiaſt! Or a Popiſh Emiſſary! A Seducer, and Deceiver of the People! --- Let them ſay; Whether they think the flaming Zeal he pretended for the Glory of God and the Good of Souls, was real, and not rather the flaming Pride and Vanity of his Heart, fomented by the catching of the Populace; or a meer Engine, wherewith to compaſs Ends or Deſigns! ---- In a Word, let them ſay; whether they think the Holy Spirit of God can thus lead Men into Contradictions! Whether, on the Pretence of his having received farther and better Light, they are ſtill reſolved to continue his Diſciples, and turn Moravians! And whether, if they are ſo reſolved, they may not equally reſolve to follow him whitherſoever he goeth; even by and by, when, on ſtill farther and better Light, he ſhall be pleaſed to preach down the GOSPEL, and preach up either the ZUNDEVEST, or the ALCORAN!

I am, &c.

Extract from the Introduction to a Pamphlet, entitled, ' A compendious Extract ' of the chief Articles of Doctrine of Count ' LEWIS of ZINZENDORFF, and ' the MORAVIANS, &c.

' WHOEVER obſerves the Tranſactions upon the Eccleſiaſtical Stage, will undoubtedly be ſurprized to ' ſee the famous Count of Zinzendorff ſignalize ' himſelf, at his firſt appearing in theſe Parts, ' with the bringing over into his Sentiments ' and Perſuaſion the no leſs famous Mr. George ' Whitefield, who by his excellent and extra- ' ordinary Talents in Matters of Divinity, but ' a little Time before could draw the Multi-

' tude

‘ tude after him by a Doctrine quite oppoſite, ‘ and leave the Minds of People in the Britiſh ‘ Colonies in America in general and eſpecial- ‘ ly in Pennſylvania in a great Ferment and ‘ Admiration about him. The Arrival of a- ‘ bout 70 Moravians from England a while ‘ ago, brought along with them this unexpec- ‘ ted and amazing News, and though it did ‘ not find Belief at firſt, yet the Faces of ſome ‘ of his moſt zealous Admirers, ſhewing more ‘ Concern than ordinary ſoon gave Reaſon to ‘ ſuſpect, what was but too true and ſince is ‘ confirm'd not only by the general and publick ‘ Rejoicing at it, of the ſaid and all the Mo- ‘ ravians in this Province, but alſo by Mr. ‘ Whitefield's own Letters to ſome of his Friends ‘ in Philadelphia. The Circumſtances where- ‘ of Count Zinzendorff himſelf relates (which ‘ puts it beyond Diſpute) in a Letter direc- ‘ ted to the beloved Country of Pennſylvania, ‘ dated German-Town, February 20th 1741-2, ‘ in the Manner following.

“ ——— My Brother George White- “ field, a Son of our Church, (for our “ Brother Peter Böhler hath brought the “ Blood of Jeſus unto him, and to the Bre- “ thren Weſley, James Hutton, Benjamin “ Ingham, Kinchin and others, that will “ be for ever dear unto us, and theſe latter “ have carried it ſince all about) has made “ me a Way through the Goſpel as it ap- “ pears at preſent before all the World, &c.”

LONDON, March 27.

Extract from the Votes of the Houſe of Commons.

Reſolved, That a Committee be appoint- ed to enquire into the Conduct of Ro- bert Earl of Orford, during the laſt Ten Years of his being Firſt Commiſſioner of the Treaſury, and Chancellor and Under Trea- ſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer.

Reſolved, That the ſaid Committee be a Committee of Secrecy.

Reſolved, That the Number of the ſaid Committee be 21.

Reſolved, That the ſaid Committee be choſen by way of balloting.

Ordered, That the Members of this Houſe do upon Friday next, at 12 of the Clock, prepare Liſts to be put inro Glaſſes, of one and twenty Perſons Names to be the ſaid Committee.

Ordered, That the ſaid Glaſſes be placed upon the Table, and the ſaid Liſts, held between the Finger and the Thumb, be put into the Glaſſes, at the Table, by the Mem- bers called over for that Purpoſe according to the Counties and Places they ſerve for, as the ſaid Counties and Places are entered in the Return Book.

Reſolved, Nemine contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Ma- jeſty, to aſſure him of the Fidelity, Zeal, and Affection of this Houſe to his Royal Perſon, Family, and Government; and that his faithful Commons will take every Op- portunity, in this critical Conjuncture, to ſhew how ſenſible they are of the preſent dangerons Scituation of Europe, by the Diſtreſſes to which the Queen of Hungary has been reduced; and, as the late favour- able Turn of Affairs affords reaſonable Ground to hope, that if ſhe is properly and timely aſſiſted by thoſe Powers, who are engaged by Treaties, and by Intereſt, to ſupport her, the Ballance of Power may be again reſtored, and the Tranquility of Eu- rope re-eſtabliſhed, this Houſe will there- fore proceed with Unanimity, Vigour and Diſpatch, to ſupport his Majeſty in all ſuch Meaſures, as ſhall be thought neceſſary to attain theſe great and deſirable Ends; ha- ving, from a juſt Senſe of their Duty, the higheſt Regard for the Honour and Safety of his Majeſty, and the trueſt Concern for the Freedom, Peace, and Trade, and Wel- fare of theſe Kingdoms.

Reſolved, That the ſaid Addreſs be pre- ſented to his Majeſty by the whole Houſe.

London, April 3. We hear the Com- mittee to examine into the Conduct of the Earl of Orford will ſit in the Temple-Hall.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Or- ford arrived laſt Wedneſday Evening at his Houſe in Chelſea, from Houghton-Hall in Norfolk.

London, April 6. From Dover we hear, that a Coffin that was carried down there in a Hearſe, and attended in Form of a Fu- neral by four Mourners in a Coach and Six, to be ſhipped as a Corpſe under a fictitious Name for its Interment in France, had been inſpected by the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers there, whoſe Suſpicions were raiſed by its uncommon Weight, and who upon ſearch- ing thereof, found a rich Magazine of Bri- tiſh Golden Coin, and accordingly made Seizure of it, and logd'd in the King's Ware- houſe, to be employ'd 'tis to be hoped, in a better Uſe at Home.

April 8. It is ſaid the Hearſe that was ſtopp'd by the Officers at Dover contained upwards of 30,000 l. in Gold.

By a Letter from Port-Mahon of the 27th of March paſt, we have Advice, that Admiral

Admiral Haddock had, at a full Council of War held the 5th, resign'd the Command of the Fleet to Admiral Lestock; and that Admiral Lestock had order'd every Captain to hold himself in Readiness to put to Sea, and to have all Necessaries on board for a Ten Weeks Expedition.

This Day the Committee of Enquiry sat for the first Time at their House at Whitehall.

The Earl of Orford continues in his Retirement at Chelsea; but every Day receives Visits from London.

CHARLES-TOWN, August 30.

By a Person just arrived here from Frederica, we are informed, That about Ten Days since all our Fleet was come too off St. Simon's, (viz. One Forty-gun, Three Twenty-gun and Two Sloops of War, and Four Provincial Vessels, a Brigt. Snow, Schooner and Sloop) where being joined by our Two Gallies, the whole were going to proceed to St. Juan's, (where there was Advice that Twelve of the Spanish Fleet were lying, and as was supposed some Fortifications were erecting also;) and from thence to the Bar of Augustine. And it is further said, That the General was going to join the Fleet with his Guard-Schooner and some small Craft, on board which he was embarking Part of his Regiment.
